

FREE WRITING WORKSHOPS

Show of Strength Theatre Company and The Southville Centre are working together to create

RECYCLED STOCKINGS

A NEW SHOW FOR FAMILIES
FOR CHRISTMAS 2011

TRADING LOCAL, the theatre project we created with The Southville Centre, is so successful we're creating a Christmas version. We want experienced and first-time writers to create new five-minute monologues to be performed by professional actors at The Southville Centre on 20, 21 and 22 December. We want you to recycle your Christmas stories and characters and come up with something original for the 21st century.

Pieces will be developed in workshops led by Sheila Hannon, SOS's Creative Producer.

WORKSHOPS ARE FREE SO JUST TURN UP!

We're particularly keen to work with writers based in the Bedminster / Southville area (see schedule on reverse). For more information email us at: info@showofstrength.org.uk

TRADING LOCAL has been to Bedminster, Exeter, Westbury-on-Trym, Brislington and Staple Hill. On Saturday 8 October 2011 it's in the Broadwalk Shopping Centre, Knowle from 10-5pm. 54 performances of 18 pieces of new work in 18 shops – and all free. Download the schedule from: www.showofstrength.org.uk
