Free Writing Workshops

Experienced and first time writers welcome

Show of Strength Theatre Company and Exeter Northcott Theatre are working together with the Royal Albert Memorial Museum & Art Gallery (RAMM) to create pieces for solo performance inspired by some of the Museum's extraordinary exhibits.

We want experienced and first time writers to create new five minute monologues based around their chosen objects. Performed by professional actors in RAMM, this is a great opportunity to turn a story into a drama!

Pieces will be developed in workshops led by Sheila Hannon, Show of Strength's Creative Producer. Workshops are free, drop into one or more of the series! See dates, times and venues below.

Visit the Museum either before or during the workshops to select your inspirational object from our new displays.

Twelve selected 'Gripping Yarns' will be performed live in RAMM galleries on Saturday 12 and Sunday 13 May from 10.30am to 4.30pm. Entry is free.
